

Advancing global health in Africa and beyond

SHORT COURSE

INTRODUCTION TO GLOBAL HEALTH

This short course aims to provide academic staff, students, researchers, reviewers and editors with the understanding of the global health within the African context and beyond.

10 INTERACTIVE ONLINE LEARNING SESSIONS + 5 DISCUSSION SESSIONS

Introduction to Global Health

Health Systems, Services, Resources, Programs

Global Health priorities and Sustainable Development Goals [SDGs]

Trade, Policy and Global Health

Health Inequalities in Global Health context

Global Health Protection and Security

Priority and Vulnerable Populations

Environment, climate change and Global Health

Global Health Actors and Networks

Globalization and emerging infectious diseases

Course Leader: Prof Usuf Chikte

Head of the Department: Prof Taryn Young

NQF Level: Entry Level 8

30 CPD Points

Course fees: R 3000

Last date for application: 31 Mar 2021

Program Start Date: 11 Apr 2021

Program End Date: 17 Jun 2021

For completion of the course it is mandatory that participants attend all the sessions.

All participants need access to a laptop/notebook computer and internet.
A formal certificate of attendance will be issued upon successful completion of the course.

For any enquiries and application forms please contact Ms Chanelle Windvogel : chaneller@sun.ac.za; Tel: +27 21 938 9451

Click here to apply: <https://shortcourses.sun.ac.za/application-form.html?offeringid=7cce8b40-f071-eb11-a5db-0050568000ff>

The Department of Global Health collaborates across disciplines and sectors to address complex health problems.

For more details please visit our website: <http://www.sun.ac.za/english/faculty/healthsciences/global-health>